Short Essay:

The History Channel series The Barbarians documents the various "Barbarian" tribes of Europe and Asia that dominated the Middle Ages. Of all these tribes, none was greater and more devastating than the Mongols under leaders like Genghis Khan and Timur the Lame. While it is easy to dismiss the Mongols as a bunch of ransacking pirates, the truth is more complex: They created an empire that promoted world trade and advanced knowledge. After watching the story of the Mongols in detail, write a short essay of 1-2 paragraphs explaining how the Mongols affected world history.
